2	THE REPORTER: 19.
3	(Walker Exhibit 19 was marked.)
4	MR. SHAPIRO: Maybe the court reporter can just
5	mark the one that Charlie if you wouldn't mind.
б	MR. FREIBERG: That's 20.
7	THE REPORTER: I don't have a 20 yet.
8	BY MR. SHAPIRO:
9	Q The court reporter has handed you a document which
10	has been marked as Walker Exhibit 19, and it bears a Bates
11	number JW000678. Do you recognize your signature at the
12	bottom of that?
13	A Yes, I do.
14	Q And the date next to that?
15	A 1/11/08.
16	Q On January 11th, 2008, did you sign your name
17	acknowledging your receipt of your life insurance policy,
18	a life insurance buyer's guide, an IUL buyer's guide and a
19	proposal which matches the policy you received?
20	A I did sign this on that date.
21	Q Did you get each of those documents that are
22	referenced in the one sentence above which you signed?
23	A I received the policy, the buyer's guide, but not
24	an illustration.
25	Q Okay. Just so we're clear, you received the policy, the life insurance buyer's guide, and also the IUL buyer's guide?

A I don't know what the IUL buyer's guide is, so I don't know what that is.
Q Okay. Well, fair to say, on January 11th, 2008, you certified with your signature that you received those first three things, correct, the policy, the life insurance buyer's guide and the IUL buyer's guide?
A It says "if applicable" and I don't know if it was applicable.
Q Okay. So you read "if applicable" applying to the IUL buyer's guide?
A Correct.
Q Okay. Let's take the first one, the policy. Did you get a copy of your life insurance policy?
A I did.
Q Did you read it?
A I did not. I assumed that the illustration from October 3rd would be a fair and accurate description depiction of the policy.
Q Okay. So just so we're clear, on this date,
January 11, 2008, you handed over a check for $112,000?
A That is correct.
Q And you handed over a check for $112,000 for a life insurance policy; correct?

1	MR. FREIBERG: Objection. Argumentative.
2	THE WITNESS: I handed over a check for a
3	retirement vehicle that I believed would perform as in the
4	illustration.
5	BY MR. SHAPIRO:
6	Q Okay. And
7	A I mean
8	Q You were handed
9	A I'm sorry.
10	Q No, keep going.
11	A At this juncture, where I'm sending handing
12	over a check and the policy is coming from Mr. Botkin and
13	Mr. Stemler, my buying decision had already been made.
14	Q Okay. So in the same meeting, you handed this
15	gentleman a check for $112,000, right, and you got, in
16	return, a bunch of documents, one of which was something
17	called a life insurance policy that you purchased; right?
18	A Yes.
19	Q Did you have an opportunity to read that life
20	insurance policy if you wanted to?
21	A Not at that time, I did not.
22	Q Did you take it home with you that night?
23	A I left a few minutes after this very short meeting
24	to go to Los Angeles to work for the better part of the
25	next few weeks, and I did not take it with me.

1	Q Okay. So your schedule was busy, so you decided
2	not to read the life insurance policy?
3	A I decided not to read it because I assumed that
4	the October 3rd illustration, which had been used
5	extensively in the explanation of the policy, was a fair
6	and accurate depiction of the policy.
7	Q Have you ever read the life insurance policy?
8	A I read parts of it while preparing for the
9	writing the letter to Brenda, and have read parts of it in
10	preparing for the deposition.
11	Q Did anyone prevent you from reading that life
12	insurance policy, ma'am?
13	A No.
14	Q Was that your decision?
15	A It was my decision, based on the time that the
16	illustration was a depiction, a fair and accurate and
17	complete depiction, of the policy.
18	Q As you sit here today, do you think it was a good
19	idea not to read the life insurance policy?
20	A I can't say.
21	Q Today, if you were to buy a product that's called
22	the life insurance policy, and hand over a check for
23	$112,000, would you read it?
24	MR. FREIBERG: Objection. Incomplete and improper
25	hypothetical.

1	THE WITNESS: I don't know what I would do.
2	BY MR. SHAPIRO:
3	Q Okay. Did you read the life insurance buyer's
4	guide?
5	A I did not.
б	Q Was that your decision?
7	A Yes.
8	Q Fair to say if you don't know if you actually
9	received an IUL buyer's guide, you don't know if you
10	actually read an IUL buyer's guide?
11	A Correct, I don't know what IUL stands for. If you
12	know, that could clarify for me if I if it's a document
13	that I received.
14	Q You signed a certification acknowledging receipt
15	of a number of items, if applicable, and you don't know
16	what one of those items mean?
17	MR. FREIBERG: Objection. Argumentative, asked
18	and answered.
19	THE WITNESS: That's correct. It looks as if this
20	statement says "if applicable."
21	BY MR. SHAPIRO:
22	Q Okay. You just don't know
23	A Which could mean
24	Q if you got it or not?
25	A Which could mean that that was not applicable or

2	know at this point which one the "if applicable" refers
3	to.
4	Q Did you receive a proposal "which matches the
5	policy I received"?
6	A I did not.
7	Q Okay. So that part of your acknowledging receipt
8	is just simply false?
9	A I signed an illustration, but did not receive a
10	copy of that illustration.
11	Q I'm just looking at this exhibit, which is Walker
12	Exhibit No. 19, and there's something called an owner's
13	signature. It's your signature, and you're signing one
14	sentence in which you're acknowledging receipt of some
15	documents. The last document you're acknowledging receipt
16	of is something called a proposal, which matches the
17	policy you received; right?
18	A Um-hmm, yes.
19	Q Okay. Is this a true acknowledgment that you
20	signed?
21	MR. FREIBERG: Objection. Asked and answered,
22	argumentative.
23	THE WITNESS: What I believe occurred is that I
24	had an illustration placed in front of me, was signed, but
25	was not left with me, and possibly, I was told, that I
